Major Fabre Here From North To Direct Concession Police

Captain Fiori Going On Long Leave March 26; Successor Made Enviable Record During 10 Years Service In Tientsin

Major Louis Fabre, former chief of the French Municipal Police at Tientsin, arrived in Shanghai Wednesday to take over the post of local director of the French Police, taking the place of Captain Fiori, who sails March 26 for his homeland on a year's leave of absence.

Major Fabre comes to Shanghai with a lengthy and distinguished record in the French police service back of him. He possesses a pleasing personality and was one of the most popular members of the Tientsin foreign community.

Honored At Tientsin

Before leaving Tientsin last month, Major Fabre was the guest of honor at a gathering of the ex-Service Men's Associations in Tientsin. The Peking and Tientsin Times in its issue of February 2 reported this occasion as follows:

"Major Fabre, Chief of the French Municipal Police, left last night to take up his new post as Chief of Police in the French Concession at Shanghai. No member of the French colony is more popular with the international community. The tendency of the various national groups to withdraw to their own circles has become more pronounced in recent years. Major Fabre was one of the foremost influences in the stemming of that progress. As Rugby footballer, tennis player, and all-round sportsman, he has furnished an invaluable link between the French and other communities—and more especially the British, with whom he was naturally closely associated in his activities as a sportsman.
